

REMINDERS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS - November 16, 2008

SERMON - November 23 - THANKSGIVING: The Gratitude that Sustains Us Rev. Nancy J. Anderson.

ROUNDTABLE November 16 The Three Ts Charlie Scholz will explore how we can best use our resources (Time, Talent and Treasure) to help change the world.

November 23 Long Term Care Local attorney Katherine N. Blackett will discuss how most medical insurance policies and Medicare do not cover long term care. If you took out a long term care insurance policy 10 years or more ago, it probably doesn't provide adequate coverage at today's costs. And if you apply and there is any hint that you might actually need it someday, you can't get it.

What's Happening in R.E. Sunday, November 16, 2008?

Childcare is available at both services in the RE building's Yellow Room. All religious education classes are held in the R.E. building during the second service time. Lea Ann Edwards is our childcare provider.

Chalice Children PreK-1st: Black is Beautiful - this session helps our children experience positive associations with the color black. To begin to see all people as members of one human family supports and affirms our values.

Emerson: Having explored other world religions, today this group will look at our own. The stories of Michael Servetus and Judith Sergeant Murray are part of our unique faith story.

Junior Youth: Today begins the first of two sessions on Christianity.

YRUU: Building their own theology continues. They will offer a lunch by donation to the congregation following the second service.

Our tree is missing a few things! Our annual warm clothing drive begins on Sunday, November 30. Take a tag from our tree and return your donations either on or by December 14. Please help us help others this winter by bringing the following unwrapped items to the RE building and placing them under the tree. We need adult and children's sized gloves, adult and children's sized scarves and hats; wrapped candy, adult and children's sized backpacks, adult and children's sized new or nearly new outerwear. This year our donations will go to both La Casa and Casa de Peregrinos.

CONGREGATIONAL LIFE

Newcomers are urged to participate in all activities.

Share our Bounty The harvest table in the foyer is to receive our gifts for the Casa de Peregrinos food pantry. We will be watching this bounty grow throughout the coming weeks. When grocery shopping remember those with less and purchase food items for them too. Items can be placed on the table anytime you are at church. Items in greatest need are canned or powdered milk, non-sugar cereal, canned fish or meat, meat-based canned food, peanut butter and fruit. Thanks!

Turkeys Needed! We have learned that Booker T. Washington school would appreciate our donation of frozen turkeys to be distributed to their more needy families. They need to be at the school by 1:00 pm on Tuesday the 25th. They can be delivered directly to the school or you can arrange to have them picked up by calling Cathie Fern at 720-840-3969 or Michael Hughes at 635-1692.
